TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

PUBLISHED ... OCTOBER 31, 1889.

SPECIAL NOTICE OF "THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE."

Beginning next Sunday morning THE TRIBUNE will contain the publication of the weekly Tribune edition, which will be out at Chicago on the Saturday midnight trains of the Northern, Northwestern, Rock Island, Michigan Central, St. Paul, and other leading railroads.

This edition will consist of twelve pages of good reading matter, and will contain all the news selected from the issues of the week, with numerous articles of special interest to farmers, stockmen, and others in the country. Owing to self-contained machine for delivering and printing the extra quantity the publication will not commence much before midnight, but the news contained will be up to the hour of publication.

The Weekly Tribune will be furnished to subscribers at $1 per year, postage prepaid. Specimen copies will be sent free on application. Address THE TRIBUNE, Chicago.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Commencing next Sunday, November 3, THE TRIBUNE will publish a complete report of the Sunday services in the churches of Chicago. This will be the most comprehensive report of the kind ever published in any city. Ministers will please bear in mind that the report will be published on Sunday morning, and that it is necessary that their sermons be handed in as early as possible on Saturday.

The Presidential party will leave Washington for Richmond this morning at 7:30 o'clock, and will arrive at noon. The President will hold a general reception at the latter place during the afternoon, but will remain in seclusion. The departure from Richmond is set for 7 p. m., and Washington will be reached before midnight.

A dispatch from the Hon. S. S. Fowler, United States Circuit at Akron, Ohio, to the President of the Chicago Board of Trade gives the following in regard to decisions handed down:

"Saturday, Oct. 5, the Cities Mutual, N. Y. vs. Fairchild, received at Baltimore a decision of the Supreme Court of Maryland, who unanimously adopt the construction of the constitutional point, the ruling that no corporation can be created by the Legislature which can exercise within the State any power which the Legislature could not confer upon individuals, and that the Legislature could not confer upon individuals the power to do business as lottery dealers. Judge Fowler, who was counsel in the case, has received congratulations from all parts of the country."

It is now sixty days less five years since the Hon. Minister of Finance promised by a circular of the gas the introduction of electric lights in the streets of that city. Five months ago, and there is apparently no more light at the close of that short term than there was at the beginning. It is not known that the Minister is responsible for the delay, but it is certain that the people are not all to blame. THE CHICAGO AND LAKE EXPOSITION.

The labor committee of Democratic Club meeting to appoint a committee to "promote friendly relations between the Knights and the Farmers of Dubuquetty." There is no reason why there should be any friction between the workmen in mines and mills, shops and factories, and those on farms; nor, on the other hand, if there any cordial relations between them. The great need of the Knights is the formation of a plan to bring about the settlement of the farmers in their contact with the railroads. The Congress has to deal with matters of the most immediate importance, and not several days pass. The principle for which they contended, they asserted and asserted it, is now fully established, and it is to be the way to be extended by Congress to subordinate corporations. Mr. Powderly and his fellow Knights could not succeed too closely the Congress example.

The anti-monopoly movement really began in Illinois, and the south of its element in Chicago to this State. In 1870 the Constitution was so changed as to make the way for the more control of our railroads, and then the Legislature and Supreme Court has exercised its full power accomplishment. The Illinois Knights of Labor could not do better than to follow closely the method

THE NEWS FROM ABROAD.

THE WARFARE.

No Going Astray on Quality or Price.

Unquestionably good make and quality, business principles that protect the customer, and the lowest prices are the weights in the scale to gain your confidence.

There is no need to hunt up the tailor, and pay him a high price to get a good fit and be in style.

We do our level best as manufacturers, not slighting any part of the work, have our own designers, know the best styles, and make clothing that will compare with that known as custom-made.

No matter how low the prices, our qualities are stated fairly on the ticket, and are reliable. We'll give you all the courtesy at our command in finding out exactly what you like, and give our guarantee with it.

We welcome careful people who want to look all over the goods, and do the very best with their money.

Charles A. O'Connor of Maryland is in the town.

There will be a reception in the parlors of the Grannis House tomorrow evening in honor of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Gunsaul, recently married. All their friends are invited to call.

IN GENERAL.

Chief W. Kelso, the inspector employed by the Old Dominion steamer, died on Saturday in the Grand Hotel yesterday while found up to $10,000.

Charles Coleman Sims stands by his wife, for he gave the Commissioners a bill that does not include alimony in a single divorce decree that is now pending.

There have been received from Dominion Post master of the Dublin Standard, Post Office and Bright to Herald Square, Engineer and Right Hon. Sir John Young, Chancellor and Duke and the Noble Church.

The temperance meeting announced for Saturday evening, Grannis Building, was attended by but one person, and he left before the meeting began. He was a stranger in the city.

Calumet Home Telegraphed Deputy Coroner Springer yesterday that the Coroner's Court had rendered an opinion that the Coroner's jury had not committed perjury in the Coroner's opinion in the matter. That puts an end to the matter so far as the Coroner is concerned.

St. Mark's Church, College Grove avenue and Thirty-seven streets, is to be enlarged at once by adding the cottage to the present church. The work will be completed by the first Sunday in November. The cost will be $3,000. The contract was awarded yesterday to Mr. Jacob Hoffman, and the work will be done by day labor.

Charles L. Sergeant was fined $5 and costs in the Criminal Court yesterday for contempt of court in refusing to answer questions before the Grand Jury. Sergeant was arrested March 4, 1884, charged with the murder of Mrs. Emily A. Fox, who died from the effects of poison administered by Sergeant's wife. The case was dismissed by the Grand Jury.

Sept. 1, 1885, $10,000 of municipal bonds and July 1, 1886, $10,000 of municipal bonds will be issued by the Board of Education. The bonds will be issued in denominations of $1,000 each, and will be sold at public auction.

Charles Mahler, residing at No. 57 Thirty-seventh street, and Andrew Johnson of No. 304 West Madison street, met at the corner of Halsted and Madison streets at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and after several hours' discussion of the question of the ownership of a dog, Mahler struck Johnson over the head with a club, inflicting a wound from which he died last night. Mahler was arrested and locked up at the Harrison-street station.

Chief Clerk Hatch of the County Commissioners' office was busy yesterday receiving the names of county employés who wanted to have $10 a day from County Clerk Gross. Each applicant was required to present a written request to the Board, which was then referred to the Finance Committee. The names were taken from the original Democratic lists of the West Side precincts of Chicago, and no Republican need apply. The Democratic Committee of the West Side controlled the list.

Sept. 1, 1885, $10,000 of municipal bonds and July 1, 1886, $10,000 of municipal bonds will be issued by the Board of Education. The bonds will be issued in denominations of $1,000 each, and will be sold at public auction.
